SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

MR. EDMUND F. TIERNEY

My Dear Graduates,

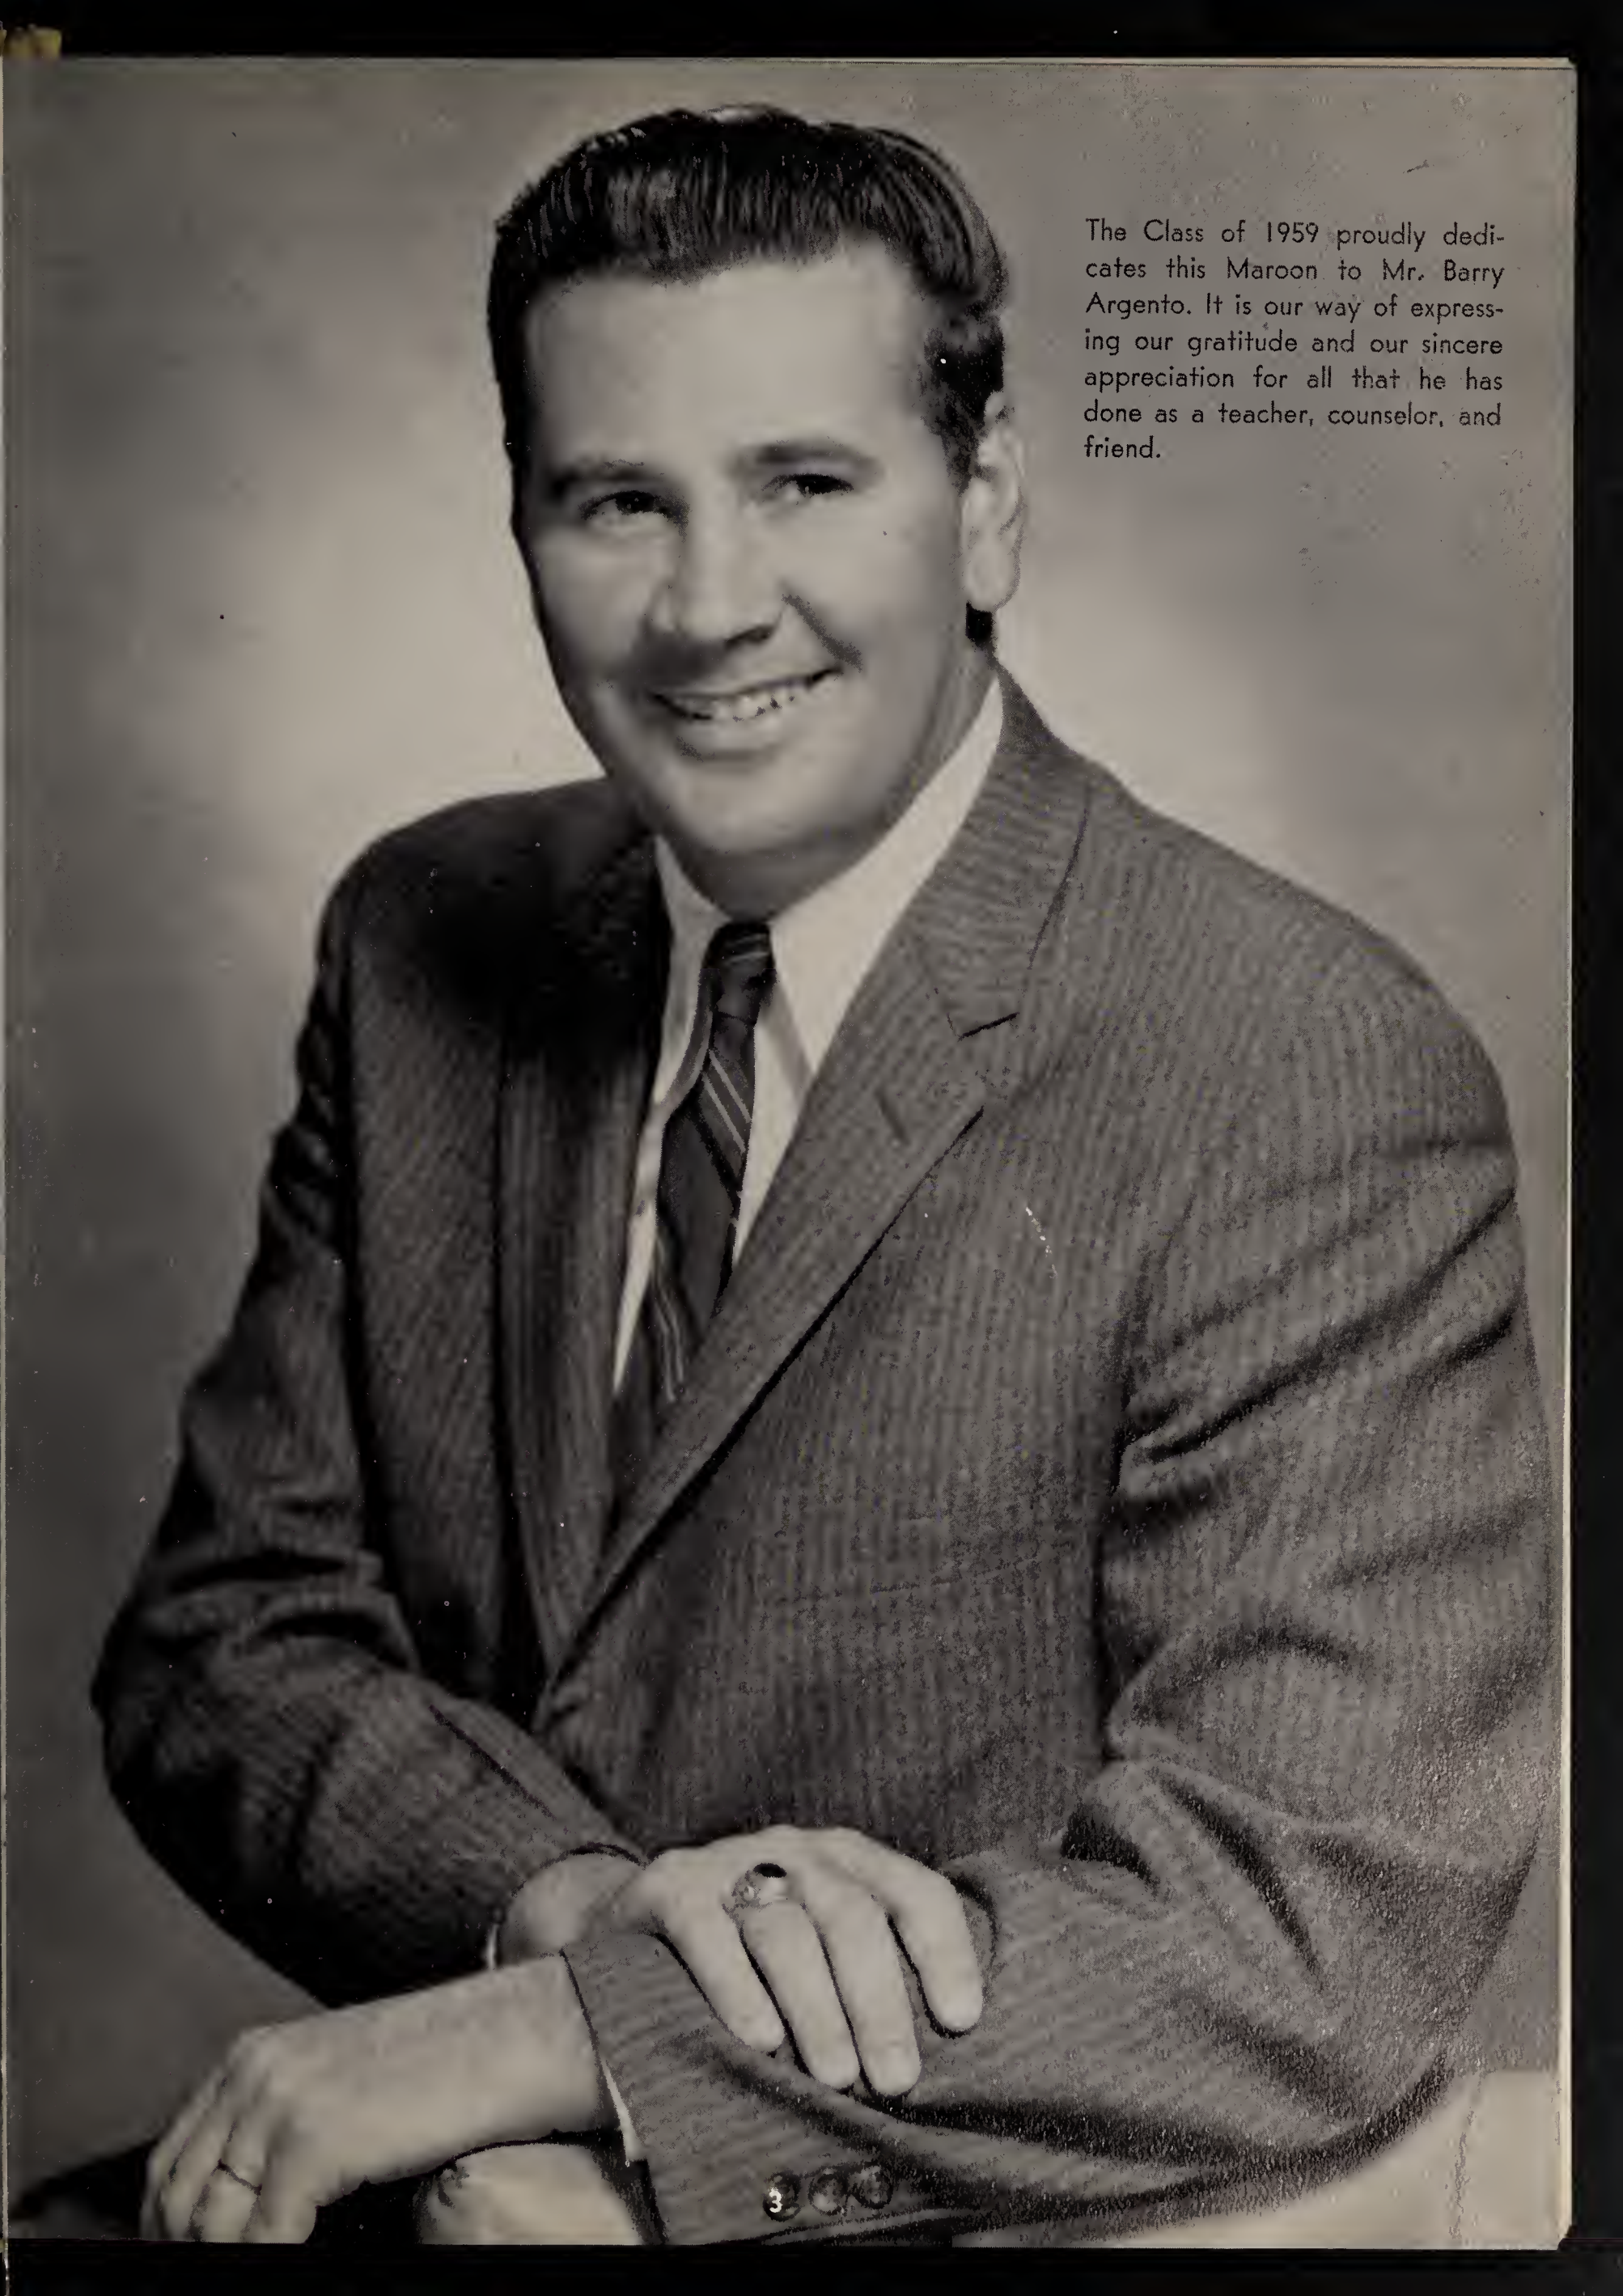

The Road of Time has led you to a milestone in your young lives—your high school graduation. By now you must be aware that time is the measure of life. In your span of years there is no doubt that you have experienced joy and pleasure, grief and pain, but the fact is that time has moved steadily onward, regardless of all feeling.

You will continue to travel along the road, for you must go on with time, no matter what you put into it or what you idle away. It is yours for your span of life. Yours to waste or improve—to leave behind a scar, or a candlelight that may shine along the road into the lives of others.

What a wonderful gift of God is this opportunity to travel on the Road of Time. Therefore, propose today that you will venture forth hard work, honesty, high purposes, and lofty ideals in your daily living. In this way you will serve as shining guideposts to countless others who will travel the Road of Time in the tomorrows to come.

Sincerely yours,

Edmund F. Tierney

FOREWORD

We, of the 1959 yearbook staff, have worked steadily for many months to produce this volume of the Maroon.

Within these pages we have tried to record the many memorable events that have happened to us during our journey through high school.

We hope that, not only at the present but in the years to come, this book will be a treasured keepsake and that it will recall many happy occasions.

1959 CLASS OFFICERS

FRANCIS E. KENNEDY
"Senator"

President . . . a wonder of the academic world . . . a math wizard . . . a genius whose scholastic feats are now a proud legacy in the files of L.H.S. . . . football co-captain . . . always insisted he would rather be right than be class president—wasn't he both? . . . we may not see his like again.

CLIFFORD C. ALBRECHT
"Cliff"

Vice-President . . . a towering chap with miles and miles of heart . . . a tall cliff—eternal sunshine settles on its head (Goldsmith)—how true! . . . easy come and easy go . . . last-minute homework . . . a true Leicesterite . . . a sociable senior . . . he always commanded our respect.

RUTH A. ANGER
"Ruthie"

Treasurer . . . sincere and dependable . . . an energetic and outstanding worker . . . co-editor of the Arrow . . . her good nature and friendly ways are two of her many assets . . . a friend worth cherishing . . . class valedictorian . . . she made a generous contribution to the happiness and success of our class.

MARY E. McKAY
"Mary"

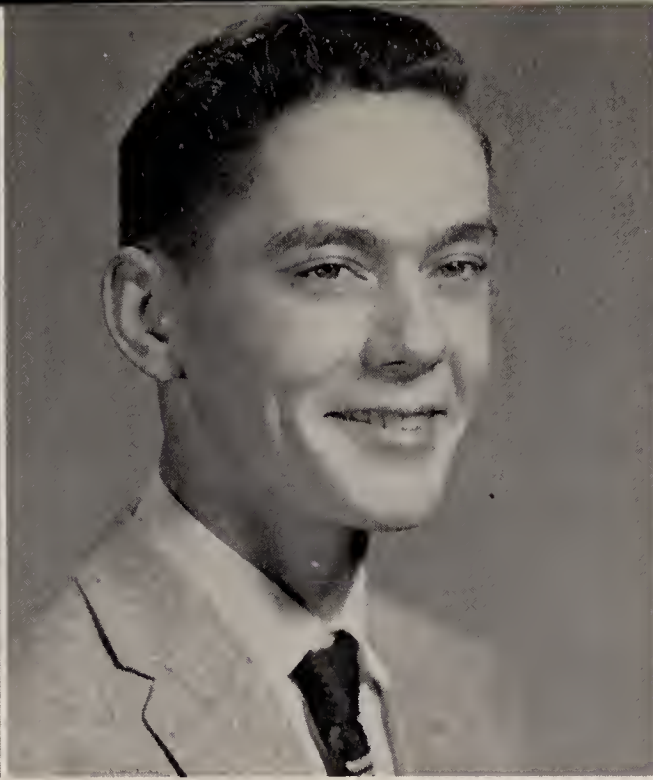

Secretary . . . very popular . . . never known to be without a ready smile . . . a sturdy oak when it comes to school loyalty . . . most personable and winning in her ways . . . exemplar of school spirit as captain of the cheerleaders . . . in her own right is a mean rebounder and jump-shot artist on the basketball floor.

WILLIAM O. AHO
"Bill"

Brains and brawn . . . he acts the best who thinks most . . . a-hunting women in his spare time . . . very exact and imaginative in his studies . . . co-captain of the football team where he was a bone-bruising full-back . . . an ambassador of good will . . . the telephone company's best friend . . . just a clever man by nature.

LEONARD ANDERSON
"Lenny"

Always makes a good time complete . . . a proud five-year man . . . loves song, dance, and a good time . . . rides by night and sleeps by day—in class, naturally . . . all books to him are titled "Boredom" . . . automobile know-how with mileage to spare . . . may one day drive as slow as 60 miles per hour.

LOIS L. BERGERON
"Lois"

Talkative but at the same time quite entertaining . . . to her dancing was life itself . . . always ready for a good time . . . looking forward to that cruise with Mary McKay and the search for tall, dark, and handsome men . . . will be an ambassador of good cheer wherever she goes.

DAVID H. BYRON "Dave"

Goliath . . . a big boy with an even bigger heart . . . always polite and gentlemanly . . . a vast repertoire of friends . . . enjoys playing a fine note on the piano . . . in the fall to State Teachers where he will hit the teaching trail . . . future scientist . . . the police force will always be behind him.

JAMES B. CASAVAN
"Butch"

A physical culturist . . . a roly-poly with rippling muscles . . . popular around town especially with a fair lass named Bette . . . present at all L.H.S. events: a Wolverine to the hilt . . . sporting a red and white Ford . . . a welcomed member in any crowd . . . usually got around to one or two classes a day.

STEPHANIE CHAD
"Steph"

A good sport with a ready smile for everyone . . . her sparkling personality and winning ways will long be remembered . . . never has she been known to have a frown on her face . . . shy and cute with a good sense of humor . . . father's car . . . Ronnie . . . just a tremendous kid to know.

LORRAINE C. CLARKSON
"Lorry"

Awaits the marriage noose after graduation but we are sure that she will live happily ever after . . . always could depend on her loyalty and enthusiasm . . . lady-like at all times . . . rock 'n' roll addict . . . blue sweater . . . Dick . . . a quiet, conscientious girl who is kind and well-meaning in all her ways.

FRAYER P. COMTOIS
"Fe-Fe"

Carefree and gay . . . floating brown hair . . . her infectious smile and vivacious personality won for her deservedly the admiration and respect of all . . . lovely and pleasant . . . handling telephone calls in Mr. Madden's classes . . . she will certainly succeed in anything she undertakes . . . delightful to know.

THOMAS E. DODGE
"Tom"

A shrewd contriver . . . Sandy—and, boy, does he need ear muffs when she starts talking . . . a sturdy oak of towering height . . . tall and impressive with speaking and debating ability to match . . . crew cut . . . blondes and roses—careful, Tom . . . always tactful and gentlemanly in speech and manners.

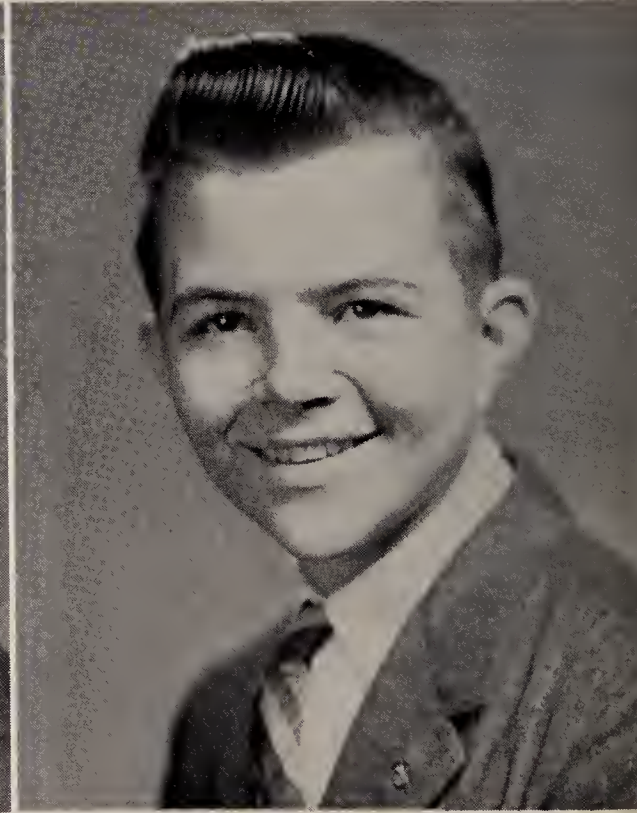

JEANNETTE C. DONOHUE
"Jeannette"

Joyous and good-natured despite several misfortunes . . . of redoubtable sincerity . . . her trademark around school was a pair of crutches . . . Ward Airline School beckons in the fall . . . sociable . . . always thought the world looked brighter in a yellow and green Chevy . . . with her friendly manner she will be a success.

JAMES J. FARROW
"Jim"

A soft-spoken and refined character . . . knows much but says little . . . now he silently steals away with the knowledge that his four-year silence has actually spoken volumes . . . his devil-may-care brother stole his verbal thunder at an early age . . . his sincerity will lead him to the top.

WILLIAM R. FARROW
"Billy"

His famous debates with Mr. Argento are legendary . . . the town talker . . . a retort for everything and everyone . . . Explorers . . . Friday nite poker sessions . . . a perennial at Bisco's . . . has enlivened many a dull class . . . not as overstudious as his brother but interested and successful

CAROL A. FITZSIMMONS
"Fitzie"

Can be mischievous yet an interesting class wouldn't be complete without her . . . a cigarette borrower . . . Ronnie . . . the Paxton back road . . . a vivacious soul with a devil-may-care attitude . . . Shorty . . . an ace in bookkeeping . . . a real Amazon girl . . . a great kid and a better friend we know not.

RONALD A. FRIEL
"Ron"

A brilliant student . . . like a quenchless star, forever bright . . . is he really shy? . . . succeeded in charming a lass named Sandy . . . was finally paroled from the PM room in his senior year . . . the honor roll is incomplete without his name . . . a sports follower . . . be assured that many colleges will answer to his beck and call.

JUDITH A. GABRIEL
"Judy"

Timmy . . . horses and saddles . . . wouldn't trade her horse for a kingdom . . . quite athletic . . . although reserved she always proved very dependable and cooperative . . . that hot rod—no brakes! . . . is that really blond hair? . . . her good spirit and friendly smile won for her the acclaim of all.

JUDITH M. GRIFFIN
"Judy"

A winsome and popular girl who has livened up our class considerably . . . her grooming and impeccable manners are assets much admired by her classmates . . . a telephone gabber . . . Don . . . a sidekick to Kathy . . . always ready and willing for a good time . . . a pleasing personality and cheery disposition.

SANDRA HADLEY
"Sandy"

Tommy . . . tonsils . . . sweaters . . . seldom a listener, always a talker . . . a natural wit . . . English class and Miss Frye . . . in two years at L.H.S. made many new and lasting friendships . . . has the drive and go to be a successful nurse . . . if you can't see her, you'll hear her . . . a true friend to all.

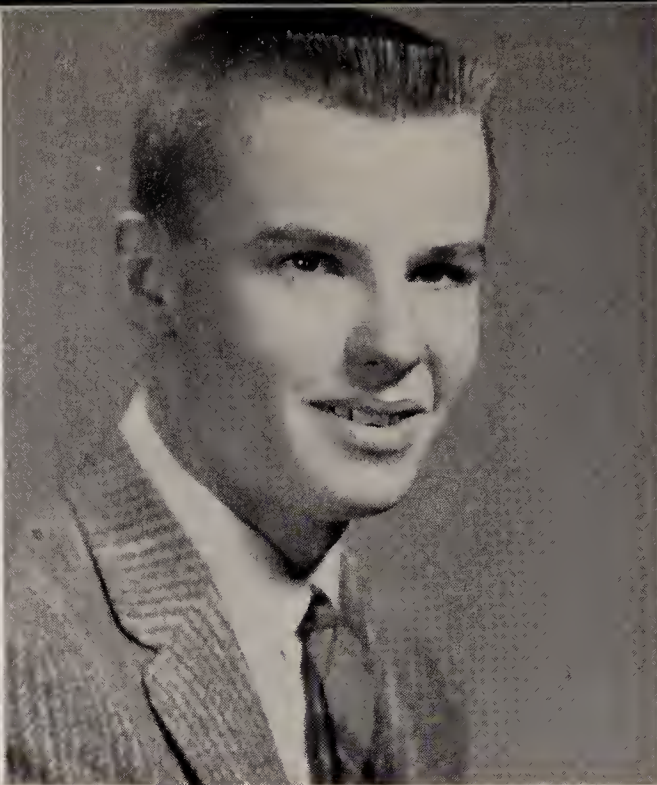

KATHLEEN A. HARNEY
"Kathy"

A smooth glibness of speech . . . Hampton in the summer where she spends considerable time prospecting for that impressive man . . . ardent at sports, playing or rooting . . . proven love for the outdoors . . . a finger in every pie . . . Miss Frye's chum . . . future remains unsaid but not less promising.

KAREN JACOBSON
"Karen"

Talkative . . . her success is due to her vim and vitality . . . her companionship will always be sought after . . . a loyal classmate who radiates true friendship . . . short on inches but long on feats as a commercial student . . . mother's car . . . Maverick . . . though petite she was very sweet.

ACTIVITIES

Driver Education Program

The course in Driver Education is now in the capable hands of Mr. Barry Argento and Mr. E. Jay Tierney. All must agree that the quality of young drivers that have been turned out in the past three years is ample proof that many potentially good drivers have become better drivers, and that the laws and regulations of Massachusetts are stronger because of these young, educated drivers.

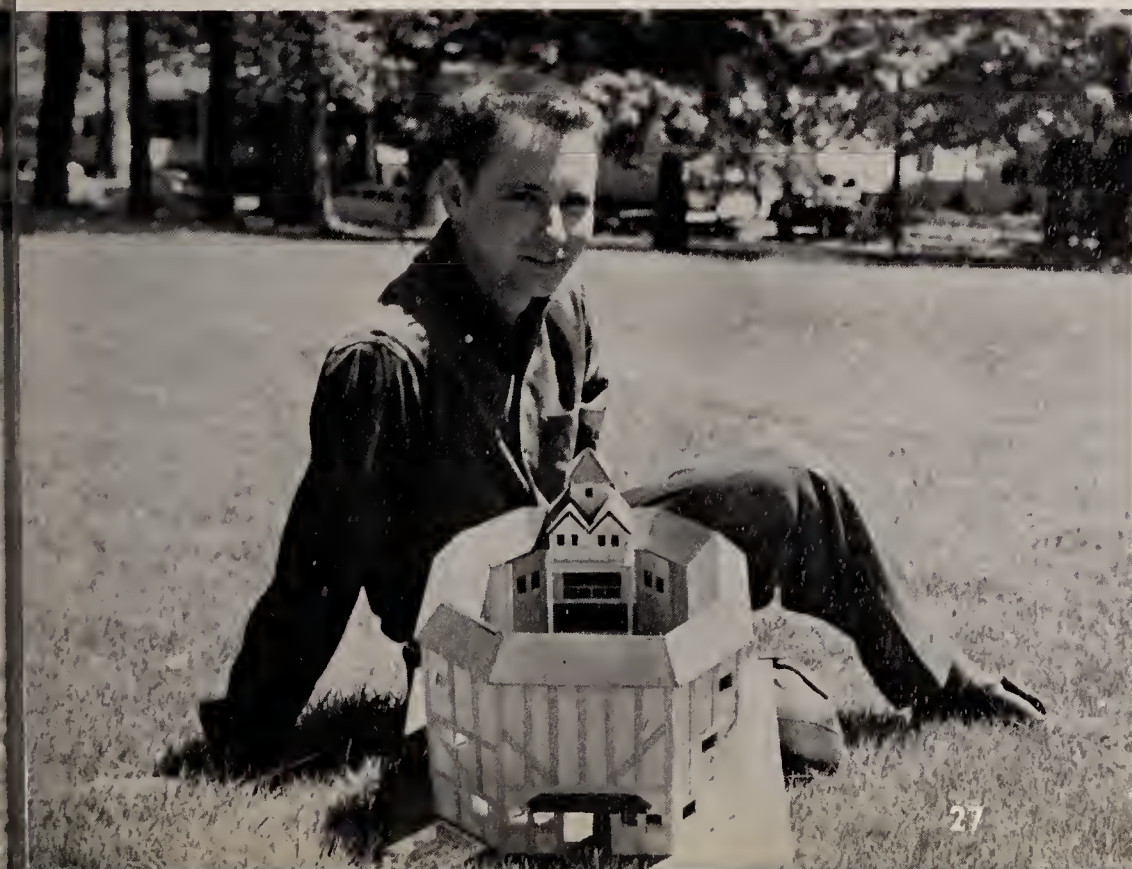

Guidance

The guidance program is now shared by Miss Mary O'Neil and Mr. Barry Argento. Their zeal for the welfare of each and every student has won for them the respect and admiration of the entire student body. These two enlightened counselors have also distinguished themselves as devoted classroom teachers. This personal contact with the students has placed them at the advantage of knowing each student quite intimately. In this way our students are served more realistically.

English Research

Special praise is in store for Arthur Nolette who painstakingly devoted many weeks to the building of this model of the Swan Theater. It is accurate and conforms to the last minute detail of the old Shakespearean theater. It is the contention of the faculty that there are many other students who, like Arthur, are gifted along certain lines. We encourage these students to display their native talents. We assure them that the proper recognition will be given to them.

SOFTBALL

GLEE CLUB

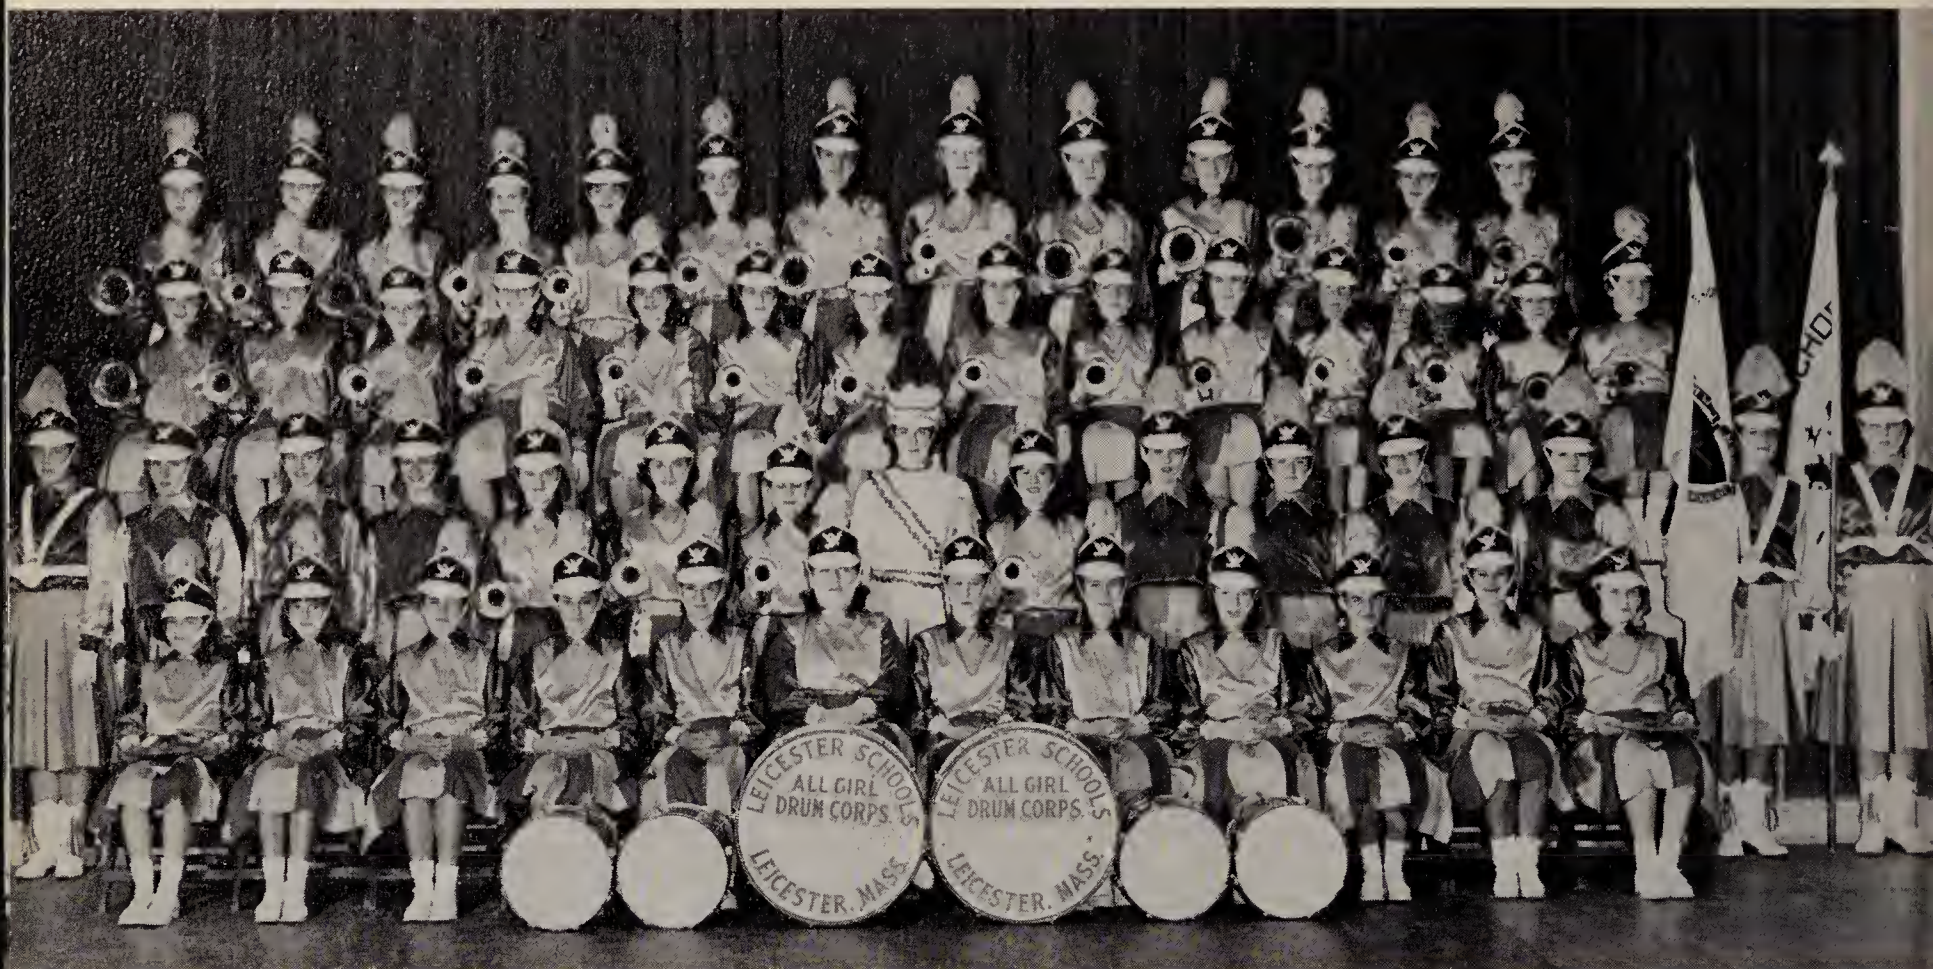

Under the new direction of Mr. Joseph Oneshuk the Leicester High Glee Club enjoyed a meteoric rise to the pinnacle of vocal entertainment. As truly as music is the universal language of all men, the Glee Club often expressed the common thought and emotion of us all during several school functions in which they performed. Its sixty and more members also added great warmth and enhancement to the closing ceremonies of the 1958-1959 school year.

HARDCOURT HYSTERIA

What was in the mind of most observers a question-mark team with an overabundance of untested sophomores turned out to be the winningest and most successful team in Leicester history. The future of this gifted and well-coached team remains unsaid at this time, but surely it is not less promising.

Much of the success of this year's unforgettable season is due to Coach Paige Rowden whose faith in these green and untried youngsters was rewarded with a league championship and a tourney title. Sentiment at the start of the season ran along this well-known line, especially if one were brazen enough to discuss this team in championship tones, "It couldn't be done." You proved it could, Mr. Rowden. Congratulations!!!

Captain Don Albro and Coach Paige Rowden.

FACULTY . . .

.. VARSITY

These action shots show clearly the wide superiority enjoyed by the faculty hoopsters. Leading 21-6 at halftime, the faculty juggernaut was urged by Supt. Tierney to slow down its awesome offensive. The varsity, meanwhile, had paid a tidy sum of money to referee Ted Provo for a "fix-it" second half. This bribe and the faculty's decision to open the gates of mercy resulted finally in a 41-37 victory for the varsity smoothies.

CLASS OF 1959

Class Day Address

Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

As President of the Class of 1959, it is my privilege to welcome you to our Class Day exercises. We hope that you will enjoy with us the happy memories of the last four years as we relive them today.

We have been fortunate to have attended a school, which not only has been large enough to provide a good education, but has been small enough to enable each student to share in its spirit of friendliness and loyalty.

We hope that the lessons learned here will help us through the years to face each challenge with courage and the will to succeed, and to be always a credit to Leicester High School.

CLASS HISTORY

As we, the Class of 1959, prepare to enter into the world, putting to use the knowledge we have obtained during our four years at Leicester High School, we pause in retrospection to glance back upon the four years we have spent at L.H.S.

In September, 1955, we entered as timid, shy freshmen, but we soon became acquainted with the new routine. We elected our class officers: Jimmy Farrow, president; Franny King, vice-president; Bette Williamson, secretary; and Sandra Hanner, treasurer. Our class was starting off on the long road that would be traveled until June 3, 1959.

We returned in the fall of 1956 as frisky sophomores who had only scorn and pity for the incoming naive freshmen. To lead our class we chose Franny Kennedy, president; Franny King, vice-president; Sis Zaveski, secretary; and Sally Streeter, treasurer. We looked forward with great anticipation to our one festive class event—the Sophomore Picnic—and, on a beautiful day, we headed for Whalom Park and had an unforgettable time.

That year the educational crossroads were met by a few of our classmates, so we parted with the likes of Richard Robidoux, Carol Shea, Carol Barton, Earl Latour, Al Margadonna, Shirley Slocomb, Pat Foley, Ellen Bergin, and Betty Ringgard. In return we welcomed to our fold the following students: Eddie Curry, Pete Pastorelli, Judy Griffin, Carol Roche, and Judy Keefe.

Advancing still further along the road, we returned in the autumn of 1957 as carefree and gay juniors. Leading our class were Franny Kennedy, president; Ronnie Friel, vice-president; Sis Zaveski, secretary; and Ruth Anger, treasurer. With Miss Scannell as our advisor, we ordered our class rings. Their long-awaited arrival, or so it seemed to us, occurred several weeks before Christmas.

Spring came busting out all over and all our energies and interests were now channeled to the upcoming Junior Prom. We selected the theme of "Twilight Time." With the help of Miss Scannell and Miss McPartland, the prom proved to be an outstanding success. We enjoyed life to its fullness that evening and undoubtedly memories of the prom will linger with us down through the years.

More casualties were noted that year as we lost these classmates: Sandra Hanner, Sylvia MacKenzie, Sandra West, Eddie Curry, Ann Mongeau, Pat Gallant, Linda Anderson, Franny King, and Ronald Williamson. Yet we were fortunate to extend the hand of greeting to Peggy Morin, Butch Casavan, Ron LaPointe, and Richard Avedian.

Finally, after three years of waiting, the coveted title of "Seniors" was ours as we returned in the fall of 1958. Not to leave things undone we set about immediately and elected our class officers who were Franny Kennedy, president; Cliff Albrecht, vice-president; Ruth Anger, treasurer; and Mary McKay, secretary. Mr. Comer was our class advisor.

Three years of stick-to-itiveness paid off as Franny Kennedy and Bill Aho were chosen co-captains of the football team. Mary Young was named D.A.R. Representative, Franny Kennedy was our choice as Student Government Day Representative, and Kathy Harney won the title of "Homemaker of Tomorrow."

Our class play, "The Cannibal Queen," was ably directed by Miss O'Neil. It was a sparkling success and was enjoyed by all who attended.

After the play, plans were started for the Christmas Ball. The hall was decorated in a spirited holiday setting to which we reacted with gaiety and dancing which made for another unforgettable evening.

That date which seemed as though it would never arrive—April 15, 1959—finally did, and we were on our way to Washington with Mr. and Mrs. Skelley as our chaperones. We saw many famous landmarks and spent a fun-filled week with our classmates. It was a thrilling experience that will not easily be forgotten.

Our final year also had its share of dropouts. We lost Judy Bickford, Peggy Morin, Judy Dube, Nancy Fyffe, Helen Sheehan, Richard Avedian, and Bob Wood. Newcomers to our class were Sandra Hadley and Nancy McFerrin.

The long journey that began in the fall of 1955 is now nearing an end. No longer will we meet each day in Rooms 2 and 3 but, rather, each will go on to follow his chosen pursuit in life. Still, no matter what paths we may take, the happy memories of our four years at Leicester High School will remain with us forever.

—Mary E. McKay

CLASS PROPHECY

Memories of so long ago seem to be the cornerstone of the happenings of the present. Upon graduating from Leicester High School, I was unaware of what the future had in store for me, but here I was—a reporter—waiting with enthusiasm to meet Dr. Dorothy Pisarski, now a famous doctor of research.

My assignment was to accompany Dotty to the Belgian Congo where we planned to make an intensive study of the incredible advances made by the primitive natives.

Of course, I was very eager to hear all about our former classmates so I listened intently to Dotty for all the news of home. It seems that Leicester is now a large sized city and this year elected its first woman mayor—Mary McKay. Politics always did run in her family. The Leicester Weekly News is now the Leicester Daily News and has Ruth Anger as its editor.

It was amazing to hear of the many thriving businesses that have sprung up in town. Carol Roche and Judy Keefe are operating a very exclusive dress shop while Ronny Friel and Carol Fitzsimmons have discovered a solution to prevent blushing. Kathy Harney is now a Home Economics teacher.

After lunch had been served, I glanced over a newspaper and found that Caroline Shong had a birthday party for the first of her three sets of twins. There was also a series of articles on Mary Young, named "Teacher of the Year."

One of our pranksters has turned out to be a successful author. Who? Pete Pastorelli, of course. He has just completed a new novel, Butterflies: A Delightful Hobby. I noticed John Sweet's ad. He is now a C.P.A. and is in partnership with his wife, Karen Jacobson. It seems also, according to the paper, that Phil Williamson is looking for another secretary. Dotty says it's the fourth one this month. There was also an excellent picture of Bill Aho setting in new telephone poles. He always was a darling of the telephone company.

We now arrived at our destination and were met by a helicopter piloted by, of all people, Tommy Dodge. He told us that his late flame, Sandy Hadley, is now a registered nurse and then informed us that Cliff Albrecht owns a men's store which specializes in sportswear. His top salesman is Ron LaPointe.

As our helicopter landed, we bade good-bye to Tommy and met two starry-eyed missionaries: Nancy McFerrin and her husband, Ollie Johnson. They took us to a missionary school operated by a nun called Sister Zaveski. The kind sister occasionally had the good fortune of visiting home. On her last visit she met Bette Williamson who is now an antique dealer. She told us about Judy Griffin who is the top model for Simplicity Fashions, a magazine owned by Caroline Piper. Judy received her know-how from the Steph Chad Modeling School.

Later on that day we joined a safari led by, yikes, David Byron, now a big-game hunter in these wilds. He told us that Jim Casavan is a strongman in a circus which features Lenny Anderson. Twice a day poor old Lenny is shot from a cannon. We encamped for the night and presently heard strange noises. It seems we had camped at the edge of a movie set where Frayer Comtois was the star of a new African Queen series. We talked with Jeannette Donahue who is Frayer's private secretary. It turned out that Jimmy Farrow is her leading man. I inquired about Bill Farrow's whereabouts and found that he has a photography studio in Hollywood. What a chuckle we were in for when Frayer told us that "Killer" Claire Mae Lachance is now champion lady wrestler.

Frayer also told us that Bob L'Homme is a Russian diplomat. Just then we saw Lois Bergeron walking toward us. She now owns a chain of Lois's Kitchens and was on a business trip to this region. She had recently received a letter from Betty Ringgard who now manages Grant's Department Store. Betty relayed the startling news that George Jerome is now a priest and has just been transferred to St. Pius X Parish. She also mentioned that Judy Gabriel is owner of an auto repair shop while Suzie VanHook is engaged to a professor. She sent along a clipping of Lorraine Clarkson, Tootie Spooner, and Marilyn Whitney who are now combining their talents for the local P.T.A. Just then Jimmy Farrow interrupted to say that Franny Kennedy had been elected president of Kennedy Die Casting Company and was vacationing at a ski resort operated by Barbara Stearns and her husband.

All was in readiness for our departure the next morning. It seemed quite strange that we had heard all about our classmates excepting petite Shirley White. At that moment we glanced down the river and saw her cruising along in a banana boat.

We all laughed in amazement but I now realized that everyone in the Class of 1959 has achieved success in one field or another. The fact that we were the 175th class to graduate from Leicester High School has served as a lucky omen, as our careers to date have been colorful and marked with distinction.

—Patricia H. Lipinski

CLASS

Being of sound mind, we, the Class of 1959, upon this our graduation from Leicester High School, Leicester, Massachusetts, hereby bequeath the following gifts as our Last Will and Testament.
